

“To be simple
is to be like a sunflower
which follows
all the movements
of the sun and
ever turns toward it.”

— Saint Julie Billiart

“To be simple
is to be like a sunflower
which follows
all the movements
of the sun and
ever turns toward it.”

— Saint Julie Billiart

“To be simple
is to be like a sunflower
which follows
all the movements
of the sun and
ever turns toward it.”

— Saint Julie Billiart

“To be simple
is to be like a sunflower
which follows
all the movements
of the sun and
ever turns toward it.”

— Saint Julie Billiart

“To be simple
is to be like a sunflower
which follows
all the movements
of the sun and
ever turns toward it.”

— Saint Julie Billiart

“To be simple
is to be like a sunflower
which follows
all the movements
of the sun and
ever turns toward it.”

— Saint Julie Billiart

The Sunflower and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur bring our presence to the people whose lives we are privileged to touch through our ministries. In every moment, we strive to reflect the goodness of a loving God .

St. Julie Billiart loved to look out across the fields of brilliant sunflowers that are such a common sight in France and Belgium. She took special notice of how each seed-laden flowerhead would strain upon its stem to follow the sun as it moved across the sky. She saw this as a metaphor: the human spirit focuses — if we let it — and follows the direction of God, as God moves across our lives.

Because of St. Julie’s love for and appreciation of the sunflower, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur often use its image to represent our efforts to follow the direction of God in our lives.

www.sndohio.org

The Sunflower and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur bring our presence to the people whose lives we are privileged to touch through our ministries. In every moment, we strive to reflect the goodness of a loving God .

St. Julie Billiart loved to look out across the fields of brilliant sunflowers that are such a common sight in France and Belgium. She took special notice of how each seed-laden flowerhead would strain upon its stem to follow the sun as it moved across the sky. She saw this as a metaphor: the human spirit focuses — if we let it — and follows the direction of God, as God moves across our lives.

Because of St. Julie’s love for and appreciation of the sunflower, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur often use its image to represent our efforts to follow the direction of God in our lives.

www.sndohio.org

The Sunflower and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur bring our presence to the people whose lives we are privileged to touch through our ministries. In every moment, we strive to reflect the goodness of a loving God .

St. Julie Billiart loved to look out across the fields of brilliant sunflowers that are such a common sight in France and Belgium. She took special notice of how each seed-laden flowerhead would strain upon its stem to follow the sun as it moved across the sky. She saw this as a metaphor: the human spirit focuses — if we let it — and follows the direction of God, as God moves across our lives.

Because of St. Julie’s love for and appreciation of the sunflower, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur often use its image to represent our efforts to follow the direction of God in our lives.

www.sndohio.org

The Sunflower and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur bring our presence to the people whose lives we are privileged to touch through our ministries. In every moment, we strive to reflect the goodness of a loving God .

St. Julie Billiart loved to look out across the fields of brilliant sunflowers that are such a common sight in France and Belgium. She took special notice of how each seed-laden flowerhead would strain upon its stem to follow the sun as it moved across the sky. She saw this as a metaphor: the human spirit focuses — if we let it — and follows the direction of God, as God moves across our lives.

Because of St. Julie’s love for and appreciation of the sunflower, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur often use its image to represent our efforts to follow the direction of God in our lives.

www.sndohio.org

The Sunflower and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur bring our presence to the people whose lives we are privileged to touch through our ministries. In every moment, we strive to reflect the goodness of a loving God .

St. Julie Billiart loved to look out across the fields of brilliant sunflowers that are such a common sight in France and Belgium. She took special notice of how each seed-laden flowerhead would strain upon its stem to follow the sun as it moved across the sky. She saw this as a metaphor: the human spirit focuses — if we let it — and follows the direction of God, as God moves across our lives.

Because of St. Julie’s love for and appreciation of the sunflower, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur often use its image to represent our efforts to follow the direction of God in our lives.

www.sndohio.org

The Sunflower and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur bring our presence to the people whose lives we are privileged to touch through our ministries. In every moment, we strive to reflect the goodness of a loving God .

St. Julie Billiart loved to look out across the fields of brilliant sunflowers that are such a common sight in France and Belgium. She took special notice of how each seed-laden flowerhead would strain upon its stem to follow the sun as it moved across the sky. She saw this as a metaphor: the human spirit focuses — if we let it — and follows the direction of God, as God moves across our lives.

Because of St. Julie’s love for and appreciation of the sunflower, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur often use its image to represent our efforts to follow the direction of God in our lives.

www.sndohio.org